OUR MEMORIAL

The following lines have been received by The News, without any indication as to the name of the author. We take this opportunity of thanking our contributor for favoring us with the copy.—Editor.

O, noble figure, features calm and stern,
Your heart must have been the standing there!
A city's tribute, common motives turn
To make of these a city's pride and care.

"What means this noble figure in the street?"
"What means this warrior armed for the fray?"
What, citizens, indeed, when this we meet,
From untaught questioners, what shall we say?

Dare we with selfish pride in victory won
Interpret it as symbol of our pride?
Should we not find that we had then no enemy,
The glorious work of those who nobly died?

"In loving memory"—what need of that
To cherish dear the memories that last!
From hearts that know the weight of troubled years
What can erase the memory of the past?

O, Citizens, look deep beyond the word;
These who love well can ne'er forget their own;
To one and all the debt we then incurred
Is figured in this noble block of stone.

"If ye break faith": aye, there the danger lies;
Tale our Memorial must ever spell—
To stand foursquare, a symbol to our eyes
To save us from another four years' hell!

For those who knew the meaning of those years
When greater war came forth with every day,
Ofttimes a late was mingled with our tears
That time, mayhap, may never wear away.

But shall we do injustice to our youth,
Who have not learned to hate a foe as yet,
By nursing a spirit of distrust?
Is this our meaning, then, not to forget?

May we be conscious of the right we own—
To teach our youth the laws of right and peace,
And define the meaning of this stone
To haste the time when every war shall cease.

"They gave their lives": Can we be satisfied
With paltry dollars cast in marble hue?
Do we not then break faith with those who died
If we consider not what still is due?

O, Citizens, a worthy motive, sure,
That prompted this memorial to the dead;
But shall we not be true to our duty,
And now, a starting word is to be fed!

From all the world they cry to us in need—
"The little homeless, friendless waifs that die
In misery, what matter, friend or foe?
Soviet and Red—what matter? Still they die!"

We see our children happy, clothed and fed,
Growing in strength, and never know the need;
But look abroad—the children of the dead—
"If this ye do": and they are still to feed!

Look to it that we read the motto right
And break not faith by selfish enterprise.
Shall we live on in beauty blind our eyes
And shade the deeper meaning from our eyes?

O, noble stone, stand well, a city's pride;
Be lasting tribute to our heroes' fame;
Point to our youth, oh, Soul of those who died,
The mighty glory of a noble name.

O, rugged face, as these we gaze upon,
May we be true to the conscious of our debt,
And young and old carve deep upon our heart
Our privilege to pay—"Lest we forget!"

WILSON BLOCK AT ROCKY MOUNTAIN
HOUSE IS BURNED

Clothing, Real Estate and Law
Office, G.W.A. Rooms Destroyed.

Rocky Mountain House, June 12.—This town experienced its fourth big fire since the beginning of the year yesterday morning, when the Wilson block was razed to the ground. L. M. Hamilton & Co., clothing, suffered a complete loss of approximately $10,000. The real estate and law offices of R. R. Hagerman and R. F. McLaren were also in the Wilson building. In the second story was the G.W.A. rooms, where veterans sometimes lodged. Fortunately, no one was registered there last night.

Living apartments were vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, who had been at her home in the country. The town is without fire protection but the volunteer bucket brigade worked like Trojans here. The Miller butcher shop and Mountview Hotel from lighting. Strong & Parsons new garage is situated on the lot immediately west of the alley, but being dropped. It was not endangered. Stanley Wilson owned the block. It is not known whether Wilson carried insurance. Flames were first noticed at the south-west corner, and before citizens could be aroused by Miss Theresia McGuire, who first witnessed the outbreak, the whole building was ablaze.

OTTAWA HEARS RUMORS OF A
GENERAL ELECTION IN CANADA
NEXT SEPTEMBER

Ottawa, June 12.—Rumors of a general election in September, as an outcome of the present political situation, are current today. But, although the possibility of a dissolution of parliament is widely discussed, the rumors bear no little doubt. There seems to be little doubt that Conservatives as a body, and Progressives with the possible exception of three or four—will vote against a government on the main motion. Speculation, nevertheless, is keen as to what the promise of a working majority will contain, and whether or not they are likely to affect tomorrow's critical vote.

Dissolution of parliament is understood to be favored by the Liberal wing which sees a rise in a step out of present difficulties. They claim that the government would come back with a safe working majority over both opposition parties. They point to Ontario as being again the chief battleground in the event of an election, and believe they could capture seats in that province from both Progressives and Conservatives. On the other hand, a dissolution of parliament at the present juncture finds no general support among members.

GOVERNMENT ROAD
APPROPRIATIONS

In addressing the Council of the M.D. of Pine Lake, G. W. Smith, M. L. A., gave some general information in regard to probable government expenditures for roads in the Red Deer constituency this year.

The government is specializing in aid to "Market roads," all expenditures to be made on July 1st of the municipal organizations. $450,000 has been appropriated for road work in the Red Deer constituency, and about an equal amount for bridges. Inland and Lacombe constituencies will each get about $200,000 more for roads, but Mr. Smith considers that Red Deer has been treated very fairly.

The government will maintain the Class "A" roads (Calgary-Edmonton Trail and the Red Deer-Rocky Mountain House road), in addition to the other appropriations.

The $450,000 for this constituency has been divided among the municipal districts (or part districts that it will include this constituency) as follows:

M. D. of Prairie Creek	$725.00
M. D. of Lochee	$800.00
M. D. of Golden West	$775.00
M. D. of Pine Lake	$500.00
M. D. of Haven	$500.00
M. D. of Lorne	$500.00
M. D. of Haven	$500.00

Capt. Dinsdale, chairman of the new Highways Commission, went over the Class A roads with Mr. Smith on Monday with a view to seeing what claim can be made on the Dominion government offer toward the construction of trunk lines in Alberta.

The local appropriation for bridges has not been apportioned yet to the different municipalities.

MAJORITY OF EIGHTEEN IS RECORDED BY GOVERNMENT

Progressives Split and Nine Vote With Liberals on Budget

Ottawa, June 14.—Amid scenes of great excitement at an early hour this morning carried its budget proposals by the safe majority of 18, the government's likelihood of an early election. Throughout the day the debate had proceeded along a straight line to crowded galleries and with an undercurrent of tense interest. Every speaker was paid from the government's afternoon until the house divided on the main motion at 1:30 in the morning.

The government majority was the result of a division in the Progressives. It was not until the third or perhaps fourth of the Progressives would vote with the government, as a matter of fact, in the opposition side of the house the government was supported by nine Progressives and one Independent, the vote being:

For the budget, 119; against, 101; majority for the government, 18.

WITH THE GOVERNMENT

The nine Progressives were: Reid (Frontenac); Hodgins (Middlesex); Elliott (Ontario); Watrous (South); Saxsmith (Lennox); Hammett (Muskoka); Binette (Prescott); McLeod (Stamper); and West (Kootenay). Thus seven of the nine Progressives represent Ontario constituencies and two British Columbia constituencies. The Independent who supported the government was Neill, of Comox-Alberni, B. C.

Hon. T. A. Crerar and the remaining Progressives, the two Labor party members of Winnipeg, Woodsworth, of Winnipeg, and Irvine, of East Calgary, and Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, his Conservative followers present voted against the budget. Liberals, as was expected, all voted for it, and the Liberal rank of the Conservative ranks were there any switches.

AMENDMENT DEFEATED

The vote on the main motion came after a division on the Drayton amendment which sought to censure the government for alleged violation of pledges amounting to disregard to political honor tending to "lower the standard of public life." The amendment was defeated by a majority of 118, namely, against 169, for 51.

The amendment, which the Liberal support of Conservatives, Liberals voted solidly against it. Five Progressives, among them being Mr. MacPhail, voted for the amendment, the remainder against it. The two Labor men, Woolford and Irvine, voted for the amendment.

And this result was attained only after remarks from all parts of Canada. It was noticed that when the vote was first called, seven Progressives and the two Labor men voted for the amendment, and the result of the division was announced as: For, 44; against, 167—a majority against it.

NEIGHEN PROTESTS

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, protested. He called the action of the speaker to the fact that the Progressives mentioned had not voted although they were in their seats and were not paired. The speaker ruled with him, Meighen, and those who had not voted were called upon for their decision.

Of the seven Progressives, including Miss MacPhail, voted for the amendment and two against it. The two Labor men voted for the amendment.

Following adoption of the budget motion, the house formally resolved itself into committee on ways and means, but almost immediately afterwards moved on to consider and adjourned. The budget resolutions will now be considered in committee in detail.

CALGARY EXHIBITION
HAS ATTRACTIVE
PROGRAMME

Big Annual Fair, June 30 to July 7

Prospects are exceedingly promising for the best Exhibition ever held at Calgary to take place June 30 to July 7, when for four days His Excellency Baron Byng of Vimy, Governor-General of Canada, will be the guest of honor at the Calgary Exhibition. The fact that His Excellency will perform the official ceremonies of the Exhibition on July 4th, Governor-General's Day, and will take an active part in the Exhibition activities from then until the close on July 7th, which is the day which it is expected will be the biggest day of the week. Over fifty thousand invitations have been sent to the children of the southern half of the province to be the guests of the management that day.

Entries closed on June 16th, and there is not the slightest doubt that the live stock exhibit this year will surpass anything ever seen in Alberta. The fact that His Excellency the Governor-General, so intensely interested in live stock of all kinds and will be present during the day of several of the classes at the Calgary Exhibition has attracted a great many visitors from all parts of Canada. The number of live stock entries received from the United States has been increasing year by year and this year a number of the largest breeding establishments in the Western States are making their debut as exhibitors on the Western Canada fair circuit, opening at Calgary.

In the way of entertainment, the very best has, of course, been obtained. The great popularity of the massed choir at the 1921 Exhibition has induced the management to enlarge on that idea for this year, and the best choirs in Calgary have combined for the purpose of singing at the Calgary Exhibition. A massed band will also feature the musical programme and several of the best musical vaudeville acts he secured on the continent have been engaged. Numerous other high class numbers will combine to form the best grand stand programme ever presented at Calgary.

The grand stand performance will conclude an evening with a grand fireworks spectacle "Tanks in Action" or "Breaking the Hindenburg Line." This is a most elaborate place and will prove popular with visitors of all ages.

Horse races will be the big feature of the afternoon on July 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th, and automobile races on July 3rd, 4th and 5th. The racing programme is so arranged that it does not become law, however, so there is a most respite for those who have been making their own beverages.

Edward Clark, aged six years, of Winnipeg, is hereby given that if all in Alberta, Saskatchewan and British Columbia as far west as Nelson and Golden. For those who are fond of camping out, the Calgary Auto Club provides a beautiful camping ground close to the Exhibition grounds, which the Club places at the disposal of Exhibition visitors free of charge. Every convenience is provided, and St. Patrick's Island, in which the club is located, offers an ideal spot for a week's camping out.

JAZZ AND CRIME

Winnipeg Tribune: "Jazz reeking of crime, is rapidly becoming the national anthem of America," William Van de Wall, not a musician, declared the other day to International News Service.

At present he is co-operating with various institutions to show just what effect music has upon delinquency, insanity and crime.

"As music is just as great as music," explained Van de Wall, "Heaven pity America if her standards of art and music are judged by the worst synopses of the 'jazz' sample of peculiar taste."

"The music of the various forms covers up a multitude of sins and is the greatest advertisement for haunts of vice."

"My experiments with delinquency, insanity and crime all show that jazz is the worst enemy we have in the world while the music of Wagner and other composers bring out their best side."

"The only music publishers who are making any money at present are the ones who feature the worst and lowest series of jazz. The youth of the U.S. are getting it for a daily diet and know it better than 'The Stars Spangled Banner' or 'America'."

"Our better class of musicians are not taking the jazz origin from among the lowest forms of civilization," Van de Wall asserted.

"The worst music being the highest form of civilization, yet not to such music."

"We need a musical house cleaning from composer to consumer."

LET US TALK IT OVER

Pure and unadulterated worry kills more people than anything else in the world. So many just sit around and worry that they don't know what to do. Good Phillips Brooks declared that a vast portion of our lives is spent in anxious and useless forebodings of the future. Present blessings slip by, and we miss so much of their sweet flavor, all for the want of faith in Him who provides for the minutest insect that flutters in the sun-beam. Why cannot we, slipping our hands in His each day, walk trustfully over that day's appointed path, happy or sorrowful, straight or crooked? For the evening will bring us sleep. The gathering twilight will bring us peace and home.

We have but little patience with the young man who will not turn his ship toward the storm and sail for the distant ports. We have no time to waste with the fellow who forever bemoans his fate and what he calls bad luck. Bishop Lambuth used to tell the story of a California hero, son of a pioneer missionary, who wrought mightily in China for years and then, with Bishop Hendrix, opened the Korea Mission. Young Stanley Reid, who has years been blind in one eye, has recently suffered detachment of the retina in the other eye and is perilously near being totally blind. With a determination which nothing could overcome, and with a purpose born of high ideals, he has worked his way through colleges and taken high rank in his classes at the state university during the past year, though dependent upon paid readers and voluntary help to pursue his studies.

With faith in God and cheerfulness that is contagious, he lies there upon his back through the weeks and months in a hospital ward, hoping against hope that he may be able to see again. And again we say we have no time to waste with the young man who is not content to open the door of life, but dreads the storm.

Strange are the happenings in these latter years. One can hardly think of the Pyramids, in whose shadows Napoleon and his legions stood, as being the witnesses of a vast and conquering Christian host. One can hardly think of a Christian soldier, the masters of the world, as being the witnesses of a vast and conquering Christian host. One can hardly think of a Christian soldier, the masters of the world, as being the witnesses of a vast and conquering Christian host. One can hardly think of a Christian soldier, the masters of the world, as being the witnesses of a vast and conquering Christian host.

Did you ever read Horace Bushnell's wonderful sermon on "The Disasters of Doubt"? It is the story of his darkness and despair while in the North College at Yale University. It is the story of the hot fires through which he passed during his great moral struggle. He followed what were to him the unbalanced trails in the realm of truth. The invading tides of doubt almost overwhelmed him. He came at last to the clearer vision, the fuller revelation. And it was in the hour of prayer. The truth was no one can be an explorer of that realm unless he be a man of prayer. The mysteries of that land of truth are revealed only to the man that loves God. In that land of vast silences only God's child can hear the story even in the whispering winds.

"Well, you see, it was this way. The child was wearing a fur coat, and the hunting party mistook him for a bear." "And they shot the poor fellow?" "No, no. He starved to death in the woods. You see, the rest of the party were carrying the provisions, and he never could catch up to them."

The tramp knocked at the farmhouse door and asked for the farmer. To his surprise, the worthy farmer came to the door, and asked for a job.

"Yes, you can have a job," said the farmer, "but you must come in with me if you are certain you won't steal any."

The tramp choked with gratitude and emotion.

"Sir," he said, with eyes brimful of tears, "you speak the truth. For twenty years I was manager of a Newhouse, and I never took a single 'gift'!"

THE WHEAT BOARD.

Financial Times: The principles of the proposed Comptroller Wheat Board have lately become the subject of well-merited criticism and denunciation in the House of Commons, at Ottawa. It was pointed out recently that from 1909 to 1914, the average of Winnipeg wheat prices was $7.50 per bushel, while the average London price was the equivalent of just 22.2c per bushel higher. The average freight rate to Great Britain was 15.7c per bushel, so that only a margin of 8.8c remained from which the exporter could possibly extract the enormous profits he has assumed to make. A large portion of this margin was eaten up in other charges for storage, insurance, interest, etc. It was also pointed out that the exporter arranged the financing of this wheat, whereas the proposal under discussion involved placing the burden of finance on government.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER

Some Members Delight in Roasting the Finance Minister. These Days

Ottawa, June 18th.—Hon. W. S. Fielding's open repudiation of the Liberal fiscal policy last week caused a sensation in Parliament unexampled in many years. For a Finance Minister to openly declare that he never accepted or had faith in his party's history is unprecedented in Canadian history. The repudiation came during the speech of the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen on the budget, drawing the attention of Parliament to the Liberal fiscal policy as presented to the people and the failure of the government to implement its promises.

What is to be thought of the microscopic reductions made here in relation to the pledge of the Liberal party, a pledge endorsed by the present Minister of Finance himself?

Mr. Fielding: My honorable friend has no authority for that statement; I may tell him, he is mistaken. I have never voted for the tariff items of the Liberal platform and never concealed the fact that I did not approve of the platform in that respect.

Mr. Meighen: I accept the minister's word without the slightest reservation, but I fancy that this was the first time, after honorable gentlemen opposite have been in power for five months, that anyone in this country outside the walls of that convention knew that the present Minister of Finance disavowed the tariff plank of the Liberal platform.

Mr. Fielding: My right honorable friend is the first person to make that statement, and I therefore now correct it.

Mr. Meighen: One would think that the Minister would not need to wait until I should make this statement to make his position clear in the matter. The Minister of Finance went to the convention a contestant for the leadership of the party.

Mr. Fielding: My right honorable friend is hardly correct, but we shall deal with that later.

Mr. Meighen: I was only following the words of the honorable member for Bromes (Mr. McMaster) who was there. But if the Minister of Finance differed from the platform of the Liberal party, and refused to be bound by it, it returned to power, it was his duty distinctly to say so, to state where he disagreed with the platform to make his position perfectly plain so that no one might be deceived.

Here is a Finance Minister, who for three years has been in reality leader of his party, openly acknowledges that he never intended to give effect to his party's pledges.

What are the facts? The Liberal party in a great convention in 1919 in Ottawa formulated a platform and selected a leader. Mr. Fielding was there, he was a member of the committee that drafted the platform; he was a candidate for leadership. When the fiscal policy was presented to the convention and he was asked to protest. Two hours afterward he presented a resolution on reciprocity and an utterance to these high sentiments.

"I claim sincerity as a great thing in politics, and so it should be. Politics is not a mere game; it should not be a mere game. Unless there is at the bottom of it a conviction that a man is doing that which he believes to be right; unless there is a conviction that the policy that he has before him is good for the country, then it is a poor, miserable game carried on for the sake of power."

Noble sentiments, but Mr. Fielding, according to his own confession, has deliberately deceived the Liberal party and the country on the fiscal issue. What is more remarkable is that, as he admits, disavowing from his party, the next day he made a strong bid for the leadership, and thus gave full approval to the policy adopted. What more callous regard for political morality was his subsequent remark (after his defeat for the leadership) that "platforms were made to get in on and not to stand on."

Mr. Fielding has justified his own statement that politics is a poor, miserable game, carried on for the sake of power.

But there is stronger evidence of Mr. Fielding's duplicity. Some of his associates at the Liberal convention declare that on the resolutions committee he accepted the fiscal policy he now repudiates. One goes so far as to say that the greater part of the resolutions was written by Mr. Fielding. This is the last clause of the fiscal pledge now repudiated.

And the Liberal party hereby pledges itself to implement by legislation the provisions of this resolution when returned to power.

Some members of the resolution committee objected to this pledge, but others pointed to the failure to give effect to their policy after the former convention of 1894, and said they "had to make it a statement that the people wouldn't believe them." Probably Mr. Fielding may have objected to this pledge, having made and broken on the policy made in 1894 and knowing he was going to do the same with the one made in 1919.

The facts are that Mr. Fielding by word and deed subscribed to the Liberal fiscal policy in 1919 and that he has by his own admission never believed in it nor intended to give effect to it.

PROPOSAL TO MAKE HOME BREW ILLEGAL

Ottawa, June 15.—"Home brew" will shortly be illegal in Canada, if the house of commons in committee on the budget resolutions passes one of the proposed amendments to the Inland Revenue Act placed before it by Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance.

The effect of the amendment will be, according to officials of the department of inland revenue, that once the amending bill has passed the house and receives royal assent, thousands of licences issued to individuals allowing them to brew beer for their own use will be voided. After this bill comes into effect, no one except brewers, regularly licensed as such by the department of inland revenue, will be allowed to brew.

APPROVAL OF HOUSE GIVEN CREATION OF WHEAT BOARD

EFFECTIVE WHEN TWO OF PROVINCES ACT

Ottawa, June 15.—After an all day debate, the house last night approved the report of the special committee recommending creation of a wheat marketing agency to handle the 1922 crop. Under the terms of the committee's report, the marketing agency is not to be given the direct handling of flour and mill products, and the act creating it is to become effective by proclamation "as soon as two or more of the provinces have conferred upon this agency such powers possessed by the wheat board of 1919 as come within provincial jurisdiction."

There was prolonged discussion on the respective methods of the compulsory and the voluntary pool. Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, complained that the wheat board was being submitted to a long and cruel process of strangulation, and the house should not be put to put in the final stab. He favored a voluntary board. The opposition policy was subsequently expressed in an amendment submitted by Donald Sutherland, of South Oxford, calling for a special session of the Saskatchewan legislature in order that it might pass the necessary supplementary legislation. I am not going to press that this special session will be called to enact provincial legislation to meet any kind of thing that may come from Ottawa, but we will do that if something comes from the Dominion government which will enable us to get substantially what we had in 1919 in the way of a marketing system.

Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, was of the opinion that the proposed plan would be reasonably satisfactory to the people of the province, and the committee's report was declared adopted without a house dividing.

MAY CALL SESSION

Cabr, Sask, June 15.—"If the Dominion government creates a marketing machinery of a character which will give us, if supplemented by provincial legislation, a wheat marketing system similar to that which operated in 1919, the government of the province of Saskatchewan is willing to call a special session of the Saskatchewan legislature in order that we might pass the necessary supplementary legislation. I am not going to press that this special session will be called to enact provincial legislation to meet any kind of thing that may come from Ottawa, but we will do that if something comes from the Dominion government which will enable us to get substantially what we had in 1919 in the way of a marketing system."

In these words Hon. C. A. Dunning, premier of Saskatchewan, told the members of the Saskatchewan legislature present here last evening what the Saskatchewan government would do the matter of endeavoring to afford relief to the farmers of this province in the matter of marketing their wheat.

The premier's speech opened the campaign in the Happyland by-election.

CANADA'S MEMORIAL

The June number of the Canadian Red Cross magazine contained a copy of a model of the monument which the Dominion Government will erect in France in memory of Canada's honored sons who gave their lives for Liberty and who sleep upon the battlefields.

Decision has not been made as to site. It was at first proposed to build it upon Hill 14, but later considerations have inclined to Vimy Ridge. A further review of possible sites will be made before final choice.

The following is the sculptor's description of the monument:

"The base of the monument is a wall of defence and the defenders; one group showing the breaking of the enemy; the other the sympathy of the Canadians for the helpless. Above—symbolizing the forces of war—are the mouths of guns directed with olive and laurels. On the wall stands an heroic figure of Canada brooding over the graves of her fallen dead. Below is suggested a military grave with helmet and military accoutrements. Behind the figure of Canada stand two figures—Canadian and French—bearing the Spirit of Sacrifice, which gives life to the monument. Looking up they see the shields of Britain, Canada and France and on the outside of the pylons is the cross."

The memorial will be 135 feet high and 25 feet wide. The sculptor, Walter S. Allward, of Toronto, will personally supervise the work of casting all the bronzes and of erecting the monument upon its site.

The monument was chosen by a commission appointed by the Dominion government. Competitions were invited and 150 designs were submitted. They were judged by a sub-committee of experts representing Canada, France and Great Britain.

From the 150 designs seventeen were selected as sufficiently good to warrant the artists being requested to make models to scale. This was done, and the choice of the monument to be erected was made after an examination of the models. Mr. W. S. Allward's design was finally accepted.

Mr. Allward is a sculptor with high artistic ability and has carried out some very striking designs, among them being the memorial to the fallen in the South African War which stands at the south end of University Avenue in Toronto.

Towards the erection of the monument to Canada's dead in the Great War for as long a time as is necessary to make the work a great one and worthy of the high purpose for which it is intended. He estimates that it may take five years to complete it in every detail.

DO NOT DRINK MILK IF YOU ARE GROWN UP

Noted British Physician Condemns Lactical Fluid as Food for Adults

London, June 14.—"Is there any one subject today upon which doctors agree?" asks a sceptical newspaper commentator on the advice of Dr. Cecil Webb-Johnson, who has said: "Never drink milk; it is an unnatural food for the young." Giving his reasons for this revolutionary opinion, Dr. Webb-Johnson, a specialist on diet, said to a questioner:

"We are the only animals in the world who drink milk after infancy. The domestic cat, it may be pointed out, drinks milk after it has grown taken in milk, it often causes appendicitis."

"The idea has been handed down from generation to generation that milk is a good thing to drink when you are ill. I think it is the worst thing, and I had for the tooth aches, applied, and other things that make you bite should be on the table every day."

"Nor is milk good for the body in addition to ordinary food. It makes one fat, and a fat person cannot be healthy."

"SOME GRAFT"

The other day we met a man who took a look at the Fair Prize List, and then proceeded to give vent to his wisdom by remarking, "some graft." We ventured to ask him what part he referred to, for we couldn't conceive that he was condemning the whole proposition in one fell swoop. His reply was, "that 10 percent. entry fee." Thinking perhaps we were on the scent of a real public scandal, we asked for further information. He proceeded to enlighten us with the mathematical deduction that if there were ten entries the whole prize would be paid by the competitors themselves. We were not convinced even yet, and suggested that some body would have to pay the second and third prizes. Not meeting with any response to this suggestion, we asked if he knew any Fairs that were making money out of the enterprise, but he would not commit himself beyond the bald statement that "they don't appear to."

We could not help but feel that our friend was one of those people who delight to imagine that everyone who turns a hand to anything, does so for the dollars and cents that he is going to get out of it. The idea of public service, of doing something for the public weal, was foreign entirely from his mind and, probably from his experience.

Few things are more detestable in our present day life than the tendency on the part of so many to discount the best efforts of public leaders by rank insinuation of sinister motives for everything that they do. The old world is not half as bad as it is painted by some, and there are a goodly number of men and women who give their very best without hope of remuneration except in the satisfaction of serving their fellow-men.

As for the basis of this man's reference to the ten percent. entry fee: If a barn could be built that would accommodate 30 animals at the rate of $1,000, it is very easy to realize that, allowing for interest on the investment and reasonable depreciation on the building, it would cost about two dollars for the stabling accommodation for each animal in the fair. In addition to this, the attendant is given free admission during the Fair. Could any right thinking man expect any sane directorate to give all these concessions to the exhibitors without getting some deposit as a guarantee of the quality of the exhibit?

When will people ever learn to stop knocking everything in sight and get down to common sense for a few minutes at least. Try boosting for a change. It will be as good as a tonic to your own system, as well as being a good deal more comfortable for those around you.

The News congratulates Superintendent W. C. Bryan on his appointment as Commissioner of the Alberta Provincial Police force, succeeding Commissioner Cuddy. The new commissioner has earned his spurs, and is well known in Red Deer, having been Colonel of the 191st Batt. when in training here. He was a very capable and efficient member of the old R.N.W.M.P., and has since his appointment as superintendent of the A.P.P. added lustre to his good name as a capable official. His appointment will give general satisfaction.

The bye-elections to fill the three vacancies in the Provincial House will be held on Monday, July 10th. Nominations will take place on Monday, July 3rd, one week from Monday. The main plank in the platform of the people in these ridings, Altona, Whitford and

FOURTH FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT

Issued by Publicity Commissioner,
Agricultural Department, Edmonton,
Saturday, June 17th, 1922.

Dry conditions prevail over the major portion of the province, and the need of rain is urgent, but generally speaking the condition of the crops in Alberta is fairly satisfactory at the present date, according to the official reports which have been received by the agricultural department.

The south-western portion of the province has been favored with a considerable amount of moisture since May 1, and crop conditions there are better than for some years, and give indication of producing an excellent yield. The entire western half of southern Alberta is, in fact showing a very encouraging condition. Another cheering feature of the present situation is that the grasshopper campaign is proving effective in most districts and the percentage of loss from this cause will be small.

The south-eastern and central areas of the province, however, are experiencing very dry conditions, and many places are in urgent need of rain, but the grain is standing up well in spite of the lack of moisture. Good general rains before the end of June will put the grain in very satisfactory shape.

Timothy and other hay crops in the central and northern districts will be light this year. Alfalfa and rye are showing splendid growth in the south, but in the north rye and root crops have suffered from lack of moisture and from the severe frost of ten days ago.

South-western areas: Good growing conditions prevail from Calgary south to Lethbridge and to the boundary and westward, where precipitation has been reasonably heavy. Rye is 30 inches high, spring wheat shows a vigorous growth of from 5 to 7 inches high. Alfalfa will be ready to cut within the next ten days. It is as hard for a government to save as for an individual, and unless the tax burden the farmer has to bear is lightened, we care not what government is in power, it will be everlastingly smashed by the people.

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD IS UNDER FIRE OF HOUSE

Ottawa, June 16.—There was much criticism of the civil service commission in the house tonight on a vote of 397-0 for that body. The item carried.

"Patronage still exists," asserted Hon. Charles Macdowell, former speaker and Liberal member for Bonaventure, "but it is not exercised by the government. It is a right to be exercised by the representatives of the constituencies." Mr. Macdowell said that the government should consult all members of parliament in making appointments.

Hon. T. A. Crerar, Progressive leader, came out strongly against any return to patronage, and condemned the old system on the ground that it tempted the member to reward his political workers with public office.

"Because I conceive it is not part of the business of members to make appointments as a reward for party service."

"What about senate?" came an interruption from the Liberal ranks.

"If hon. members desire to make a change in appointments to the senate," replied Mr. Crerar, "it would have my hearty support."

Mr. Crerar asserted that the power of dismissal should rest very largely in the hands of ministers and deputy ministers.

CONNECTION OF IRELAND WITH BRITISH EMPIRE FIRMLY FIXED

Relations Between Ireland and Empire on Basis Similar to Canada and Other Dominions.

London, July 15.—The draft of the new Irish constitution made public last night on the eve of the elections gives, as the document itself states, force of law to the Anglo-Irish treaty and expressly declares that any provision of the constitution of any amendment thereto, or any enactment under the constitution, which is in any respect repugnant to the treaty, shall be void and inoperative.

The constitution thus embodies connection with the British crown as already established in the treaty, and generally places the relation between Ireland and the empire on the same basis as Canada and the other dominions.

THE OATH OF MEMBERS
The constitution requires every member of the Free State parliament to subscribe faith and allegiance to the constitution and swear to be faithful to the king in virtue of the common citizenship of Ireland and Great Britain and Ireland's membership in the British commonwealth of nations.

TIT-BITS

A hero is not merely one who does some one great thing, but who lives a life of quiet strength which makes better all who meet it.

It is possible to be a Christian outside the church; but it is dangerous to try the experiment. Inside is instruction, fellowship and guidance.

I have no other ambition so great as that of being truly esteemed of my fellow men, by rendering myself worthy of their esteem.—Lincoln.

One may have many commendable virtues, but if he cannot get along smoothly with others he is likely to be a disturbing element in any community.

Courtesy wins straight to people's hearts. The boy who is always courteous has the best passport to success. Consideration for others is a habit to be earnestly cultivated.

It is the privilege of the Christian to meet death triumphantly. It has no sting. Christ has taken that away, and it's only the coming of Christ to receive us unto Himself.

Showers of blessing will come, not from without upon us, in response to outward calls for them, but within us when we put away from heart and life the things that now prevent them.

A negro farm hand, employed by an Arizona cotton grower, was told to make his bed in the barn where the farmer's pet bulldog also slept at night.

"You go right on in there," said the farmer, "the dog won't hurt you." The negro started against "sleeping in there wiv-wiv that dog? No sah! Not me! The quittin' right here an' now!"

"But," argued the farmer, "that dog is perfectly harmless—it was brought up on milk."

"So was I brought up on milk," retorted the negro, "but I eat meat now!"

OUR OTTAWA LETTER

Sidelights on Life in Parliament as the Session Draws to a Close.

Ottawa, June 17th.—Mr. Fielding's budget proposals have been under fire during another week. The curious part of it is that his critics are numbered not alone in the Opposition ranks, but come from the Government side as well. Protectionist Liberals object to lowered duties, free-traders complain because they are not lowered further. The increased sales tax, the excise on beet sugar, the stamp tax—indeed, every feature of the budget, probably has been criticized by members behind Mr. Fielding himself, from the Conservatives and Progressives. Liberals are prepared to talk against certain of the proposals, and to explain to the veteran finance minister the shortcomings of his budget—but they do not clear it up. It is one thing that they will vote precisely as usual. What if the Liberal party did solemnly pledge itself to implement by legislation all manner of pledges which are now ignored? As Hon. J. B. Maclellan explained in the House: "The prospect of a return to power was the glory of it all—the hope of power and the realization of power."

Two outstanding instances of this party loyalty that overshadows all else may be quoted. W. G. Raymond, Liberal candidate in Brantford, has endorsed the famous platform, with its "free implements" and ran as a protectionist. The Motion picture industry was assailed in his riding for having made certain cuts in implement duties and for having protected a temporary measure, free entry of farm tractors valued under $1400. Mr. Raymond endorsed the platform, but W. F. Cockburn, a consistent protectionist. Recently he accompanied a Brantford delegation to Mr. Fielding to urge that implement duties remain. The new budget lowers the general tariff on 55 items upon which the prosperity of manufacturing Brantford depends, and makes tractors permanently duty-free. Does Mr. Raymond protest? Only to the extent of making a speech in the House in favor of protection. He explains that he must support the budget and the government because he has always been a Liberal and "for reasons deep within my being." The trouble is that the Liberals can only force a concession from campaign pledges, and these reasons deep within the candidate being not put forward at election time.

The other example is a member who holds opposite views on the tariff, though he also is seated behind Mr. Fielding and Mr. King. An Hon. R. Maclellan, member of the Liberal, is a free trader, and doesn't care who knows it. He even quizzed Mr. Raymond during the campaign speech. He is opposed to the sales tax, as it works out. One would think that there was nothing in the whole budget for Mr. Maclellan. How does he justify his support? Curiously enough, he stands in the ground for hope that the government is moving toward a tariff for revenue only, and—this is his confession—he will later rise up to confront Liberal campaign speakers in Ontario—tariff for revenue in the House and free trade. As for Mr. Raymond, the member for Brantford sizes him up thus: "My friend is a Liberal. I know he is a Liberal. His face shows he is a Liberal; the tip of his nose, his demeanor, show he is a Liberal. But, alas, he has lived too long in Brantford, where miscegenation is the usual upon fiscal matters are such that even the elect do fall."

So while Mr. Maclellan sticks to the old party in spite of the tariff pledges he never did believe in, Mr. Raymond, who is a free trader, he still has hopes of these same pledges. While others of the party are busy explaining that it is never intended to implement them, Mr. Maclellan thinks otherwise, and reads Mr. Fielding the explanation:

"At Ottawa in 1919 we passed a trade plank in the platform which I consider is a sound plank for the people of this country. After we passed that plank the present Minister of Finance allowed his friends to nominate him as the leader of the Liberal party. I do not think for one moment that the Minister of Finance would ever after that plank in place him in nomination had he not been in substantial agreement with that platform."

Well, Mr. Fielding is Finance Minister, and has been in nomination for the last time. He has broken the trade plank in the platform, and the trade plank is left out, notwithstanding Progressive support for it. Yet Mr. Maclellan stands by because, as he reads the pages of light, right up to 1911, the Liberal party will not in the election, but to the credit of its trust, which to Mr. Maclellan's mind, is free trade.

The Progressive attitude may be summed up in the statement that they don't like the budget, for a score of reasons, but they will not vote for Sir Henry Drayton's amendment because it accuses the Liberal government of "political dishonesty." It is not the Progressive policy to oppose or condemn the government as long as there is any hope of getting any of their own special legislation through it. Hon. T. A. C. Crerar undoubtedly takes that position, and most of the Liberal Progressives are equally sympathetic and long-suffering, but there is a section which would like to try an amendment of its own, if the House rises permitted, which most of the Liberal Progressives, is said to be leader of that wing, and his encounter with Hon. Arthur Meighen during the debate may be quoted by way of presenting a bird's eye view of the situation.

Mr. Meighen: Does my honorable friend believe in the practice of

LACOMBE TENNIS CLUB

Visits Local Club on Wednesday

On Wednesday afternoon the Lacombe club drove down for a friendly match with the local club, about fifteen being in the party. The play, which was interrupted by the shower for a time, was very good and some real tennis was displayed. Darkness prevented some of the matches being run off but twenty matches kept the courts busy during the afternoon. The refreshments in the hands of the ladies of the local club, were very much appreciated, particularly the tea after the shower.

The Lacombe players were: Messrs. Latham and Aldwinke, Misses May Talbot, Louise Talbot, James and Murray; Messrs. H. Morrison, Fortuna, Campbell, Williamson, McCormick and Oliver.

The Red Deer team comprised Messrs. Bennett, Johns and Taylor; Messrs. Ebert, G. Smith and Thompson; Messrs. Teasdale, Bennett, Rev. McCormack, Johns, Fowler, Oram, P. P. Galbraith and E. M. Galbraith.

The result: Ladies' Singles: Won—Miss Smith, Miss Ebert, Miss Murray, Miss Thompson.

Ladies' Doubles: Miss Smith and Miss Ebert, Miss Murray and Miss Thompson.

up in the second, an account of darkness, the visitors having won the first set.

WEEKLY NEWS BULLETIN

NEW GAME REGULATIONS

New regulations concerning the hunting and killing of game in the province have been put in effect, as announced by Benjamin Lawton, Chief Game Guardian of the province. Some residents north of parallel 55 have been permitted to kill game at any season of the year for their own use, but this privilege has been abused by residents and others. At the last session of the legislature the game act was amended to provide that no person shall kill game, big game or small game, open season, which in the case of ducks and geese is from September 15 to October 31. Exception has been made in the case of White Winged Scoter commonly called Black Duck. These may be killed at any time of the year.

In the case of big game the act now provides that residents of that part of the province residing north of the 55th parallel may kill big game during the close season only after having obtained a resident's big game license, but in no case are big game animals to be killed during the closed season unless required for food.

NEW POLICE COMMISSIONER

A great deal of discussion has been Attorney General J. E. Brownlee of the appointment of W. C. Bryan, Superintendent of the Provincial Police, to be Commissioner of the Police, in place of Commissioner Alford Cuddy, who has returned east. Toronto. Col. Bryan's appointment became effective June 15. The offices of the superintendent and commissioner will be combined. Col. Bryan is a former mounted police officer who has been in the service of the force for some years. Recognition has been given to the services of Inspector Nicholson, chief detective of the force, who also has a notable record of achievement in police work in Alberta, both with the mounted police and the Alberta force.

Over 10,000 applications have been made to the department of education for the provincial examinations. This month. There will be over 1500 examinations, 1000 of which will be rural where high school entrance examinations will be written.

BY-ELECTIONS, JULY 10th. Writs for the three by-elections for the provincial houses, to be held in the ridings of Ribstone, Whitford and Sedgwick, have been issued, calling for nominations to be held July 3rd, and elections one week later if necessary.

A second action to determine whether or not slot machines are illegal gambling devices, has been commenced by the attorney general's department in the courts of Edmonton.

HOW TO USE HOPPER POISON. A great deal of grasshopper poison bait is being wasted it has been found by the department of agriculture through the fact that the bait is often put out at the wrong time of day and in some cases before the hoppers have made their appearance at all. Grasshoppers begin to feed in the morning when the sun becomes hot enough to heat them up, and this is the time to place the bait. Good judgment must be used in this regard, but from present observations, on ordinarily warm days, the proper time to place the bait is between 6:30 and 9 in the morning. The effectiveness of the bait depends much upon this. The bait may be effective for two hours if the moisture condition of the bait is right, but not be effective for an hour if put out too late in the day. Young grasshoppers suck rather than eat, thus the importance of having proper moisture condition in the bait.

Plans which have been under consideration for some time by officials of the provincial department of agriculture and the agricultural colleges in co-operation with the officials of the Dominion Seed Branch in Calgary have now been perfected for the establishment of an effective scheme for the marketing of registered seed grain produced in Alberta. These plans are the result of a conference between W. J. Stephen, crop commissioner of the department of agriculture, Prof. Cutler, of the Field Husbandry Branch of the Agricultural College, and G. M. Stewart, representative of the seed branch at Ottawa, will agree to these plans. Announcement of the plan was made by Hon. Geo. Hoadley, Minister of Agriculture.

Alberta has long been recognized as the one province essentially suited to the production of quality seed, particularly in cereals, grasses and clovers. The climatic conditions are conducive to the production of large, strong and viable seed and it is recognized that pure seed produced true to variety is in great demand not only in Canada but in the Middle and Western States.

PLANT FOR MARKETING. The new plan for the marketing of the seed field husbandry branch of the agricultural college will continue to produce as formerly pure registered seed of wheat, oats and barley, and to handle this seed as it has been done in the past, and in co-operation with the seed branch of the provincial department of agriculture. The field inspection work will be carried on under the supervision of the provincial seed branch, and the grading and bin inspection will be attended to entirely by the Dominion Seed Branch. The seed will be registered as usual by the Canadian Seed Growers' Association. The marketing of the seed will be handled by the provincial department of agriculture.

Arrangements are to be made whereby central cleaning facilities for the seed will be established. Another feature of the marketing plan which will be inaugurated this year will be the holding of a properly selected exhibit of seed and grasses at some of the state fairs of the central and western states. This exhibit will be a combination exhibit for the purpose not only of encouraging a market for Alberta seed but also for immigration purposes. The exhibit will be placed in states from where it is felt suitable settlers can be drawn, settlers who are in a position financially and who are desirous of establishing themselves in Alberta.

FOSTER PREDICTS HIGH PRICES FOR WHEAT THIS YEAR

Claim Crops Will Be Light in Old World, Australia and United States. On the subject of "world crop weather news," W. T. Foster, of Foster's weather bureau, Washington, D.C., sent the following article to The Herald:

"Government crop reports for May are not correctly estimated because important crop weather news has been made public since the end of May. Recently the newspapers have published many reports of bad winter grain conditions in Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and other parts of that great winter grain country. The editor of the Chicago Roundup Grain Magazine made an investigating trip of 180 miles by auto through wheat country in that country and reports bad conditions generally. He says the dry weather of the last month caused the wheat plants to send down only about one-third the usual number of roots and those only to a short depth and that more recent rains caused a fair growth of the wheat stalks, but that such wheat conditions cannot produce any considerable amount of good wheat.

The president of the Houston Grain company of Kansas City recently made a careful investigating trip by auto through that country and says: 'I believe that the wheat will prove a disappointment when threshed as I failed to see any wheat that will make fifteen bushels to the acre. Corn is exceedingly late, some of it not planted and most of it only two or three inches high and badly in need of cultivation.' All this is good evidence tending to confirm the correctness of my long ago forecast. The excessive rains are, as predicted, on the southern, and the deficiencies on the northern slopes.

PREDICTS HIGHER PRICES. "June 8 only 12 cars of wheat reached Chicago; June 7 only a few carloads passed through Chicago, none stopped; June 6 only 5 cars of wheat. The previous week from 100 to 200 cars arrived every day. The farmers will not sell their grain at present prices; to do so would be a great error.

"The newspapers are now publishing reports of droughts from southern Europe while all interests over there are trying to hide the facts. We cannot blame them; they are now compelled to say many shiploads of grain from us and when all the facts about the great drought are known they will be compelled to pay much higher prices.

"The newspapers are telling of a serious shortage of rain in Australia, and say the estimate is that that continent will not have more than six or seven million bushels of wheat for export. This is their winter; they are waiting for grain around March as we do around September and harvest it around January as we do around July. When they get to January they will have little wheat to harvest and none to export.

No jealous and envious spirit can rise to greatness, whatever opportunities are offered, and no broad and generous spirit can ever live in a life, however circumscribed its surroundings.

There is often railing against Christians for inconsistency; but he whose temper is sweet and whose life is helpful to others knows that the vast majority of Christian people are worthy of confidence.

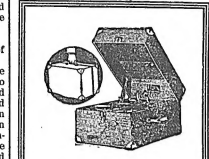

CONDOR U.F.W.A.

The regular monthly meeting of Condor U.F.W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Hattie Condor, on Saturday afternoon, June 3, when a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Our Condor U.F.W.A. has every appearance of being a success, according to the large attendance of ladies who seem to take a big interest in it. Mrs. E. Moore gave a very interesting demonstration and lecture on "First Aid on the Farm." Mrs. Clement also gave a very good lecture on "Fruit Canning," which was much appreciated. A hearty vote of thanks was given these ladies. At our next meeting, which will be held on July 8, Mrs. Bott and Mrs. Simmons will give us a lecture on "Chicken Raising." All ladies are welcome to our meetings.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Eastman and Mrs. Barton.

The members of the U.F.W.A. joined the ladies to arrange for the picnic which will be held on July 12. The ladies finished up with a good game of basketball, while the men enjoyed their game of football. Ten cent teas were served to the men by the girls of Prairie Rose school, the proceeds to go to the Junior Red Cross.
